Let Freedom Sing Summer Concert Series at Freedom Crossing Returns for Sixth Year!

Country Music Sensation Tyler Farr Announced For First Concert June 4th, 2016

April 15, 2016 (El Paso, Texas) Freedom Crossing at Fort Bliss has announced the Let Freedom Sing Summer Concert Series presented by Sunland Park Dodge for the sixth year. This year the series will kick off with a bang opening from country music's hottest rising star, Tyler Farr. The free concert is open to the public and will be held on Saturday June 4th, 2016. Opening act is El Paso Times' Band of the Year, Joe Barron Band at 7:00 PM.

Farr made his big splash on the country music scene with his first top ten hit "Redneck Crazy" in 2014 which was followed by his second hit, "Whiskey in my Water". That year he was nominated for Music Row's "Breakthrough Artist of the Year". Since then he has been touring with the likes of Jason Aldean, Florida Georgia Line, and Lee Brice. In 2015, off his second album, Suffer in Peace, he released the first song, "A Guy Walks into a Bar" which quickly flew to number one status. Currently he is enjoying the success of the second cut off that album, "Better in Boots," which is steadily climbing the charts.

Over the last six years Freedom Crossing has hosted the free summer concert series, Let Freedom Sing that has included nationally acclaimed artists such as Lee Brice, Eli Young Band, Rodney Atkins, Jerrod Niemann, Blues Traveler, Gym Class Heroes, Karmin, John Michael Montgomery and, most recently, Clint Black and Thompson Square.
